

getting connected

A great way to find volunteering opportunities is through online matching services.

Try the following:

Description	Link
Volunteers Australia Volunteers Australia (Australia's peak body for volunteers) allows you to search for opportunities based on a number of wish criteria e.g. how far you want to travel, industry type, amount of time you can commit. It is linked to the various state volunteer organisations around the country.	www.govolunteer.com.au
SEEK Online employment agency, SEEK offer a similar matching service using information sourced from Volunteers Australia.	www.SEEKvolunteer.com.au
The Australian Giving Centre The Australian Giving Centre provides an online meeting place for community groups and skilled and willing helpers. The aim of the service is to 'help individuals make a deeper, longer lasting connection with their community'. They cover large community projects as well as smaller ones such as local schools.	www.ourcommunity.com.au
International volunteering If you want to volunteer overseas a number of organisations offer volunteering opportunities.	www.vidavolunteers.com.au www.australianvolunteers.com www.gvaustralia.com www.unicef.com

For more information and useful links go to the resource section of www.ipac.com.au/lifedirections.