

Thank You

Well goodness gracious me. I'm sitting here, you know, after 22 years of recording Talking Money scripts. Look, honestly, I just can not believe it. And would you believe, for regular listeners of this station, you've heard me 5,210 times. That's how many scripts I've put down over 22 years.

But for all of us, life changes, and for me, in a very positive way. I turned 60 last year, don't worry I'm in great health, great marriage, and my kids are going well, and all that sort of stuff. Life is really good.

You're going to continue to hear me on radio because I love talking to people about money. But not through this regular Talking Money format. What I would like to do is thank you so much for following me over the 22 years. Don't worry you'll still hear me from time to time banging on about money, but for now, thank you so much for following me for so long.
